HARVARD'S TEAM SIZED UP.

A TRUSTWORTHY ESTIMATE OF THE CAMBRIDGE PLAYERS.

THEIR COACHES SAY THEY ARE IN TIP-TOP FORM AND ABLE TO MAKE A GREAT

FIGHT ON SATURDAY. Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 11.-In view of the game to be played with Yale on Saturday, the following criticism of the players and substitutes of the Harvard football team was given out to-day. It comes from an official source, and is considered a good

The team has now reached its culmination point and satisfactory results have been obtained. The Varsity team and substitutes will come to the game Saturday with no injuries that will cause anxiety as to their ability to last through the game, except in one or two cases. The team has shown gradual improvement, and should be in its best form Saturday, "The ends have covered their stations in excellent form throughout the season. Their fault is do not hold the runners well enough on defence. Richardson has been doing good work, in defence. Richardson has been doing good work in spite of his light weight. He seems to break up or sift through interferences, and is at the right spot. Bull has been showing up well as an end, tackling flercely and running hard and well, through showing greenness in tackling too hard. Graydon tackles well, but is nursing an injury, and Lewis, though first rate on following the ball, often overruns his man and misses tackles.

"At right tackle Donald has done as good work as his condition permits. He is heavy, reliable and a decidedly good tackler. Swain, although the lightest candidate, has shown a good quality of work throughout the year. He is careful, tackles hard and accurately, and runs fairly well with the ball. Wheeler puts up a fierce game, and would be invaluable but for his tendency to get off side. Mills, who has the capacity for making one of the best football players in college, mars his brilliant work by allowing himself to be pocketed or drawn through so far as to leave a hole. He runs with through so far as to leave a hole. He runs with the ball with excellent speed and judgment, and would make a good halfback.

"At left guard Bouve is showing up well, both on offensive and defensive. If he showed a little more fletceness in his play there would be little fault to find with him. Haskell is steady and firm. He follows the ball well, and is apt to get it on a fumble. He knows his position thoroughly. Shaw's good work is too well known to need comment. If he does not play Saturday it will be due to some physical disability rather than to any doubt as to the excellence of his play. Beal is a fierce rusher and plays a strong and careful game, but he is not entirely safe on defensive.

"Doucette has his own way of playing, and does much to vindicate it. He is steady, knows the game, and plays it for all that it is worth. He is always on the ball, and helps to throw his opponents out. Burden plays carefully, but not always kafely, and needs steadying in getting possession of the ball.

"Gaurison has done excellent work at quarter. He

YALE READY FOR THE GAME. ALL HER MEN AS FIT AS FIDDLES-DUDLEY CAN'T PLAY.

New-Haven, Conn., Nov. 11 (Special).—The part of Yale's football practice which was open to the public to-day was decidedly insignificant. It did not last more than ten minutes, and the men who played were, for the most part, substitutes. Captain Rodgers, Cadwalader and Chamberlain were the only 'Varsity men in line. As to the rest of the team, the coaches did not wish to run the risk of having a man hurt two days before the Har-Another hard practice game would also have been just enough to make some of the men go a little "fine." They are just right now, and will meet Harvard in the pink of condition phys-

To-day's practice was the last before the Harvard game. The team will start for Beston tomorrow afternoon, and will spend to-morrow night at the Hotel Vendome. Besides the regular team and about twenty substitutes, the coaches, rubbers and student ushers for the Yale side of Soldiers' Field will be in the party. In to-day's practice the line-up was as follows:

Centre Cadwalader
Guards Chadwick and Harvey
Tackles Captain Hodgers and Chamberlain
Ends Slocovitch and Conner
Quarterback Sullivan
Halfbacks Kiefer and Corwin
Pullback Hine

The aim of the work seemed to be to give the first substitutes practice on the defensive. There was little kicking, and the ball was given to the

was little kicking, and the ball was given to the scrub whenever it was lost by them in downs. The continued battering against the 'Varsity was well net and the practice was good. Gilmore did great work for the scrub, and Corwin is hard pushed by him for first substitute halfback. The best "subs" seem to be the following: Fullback. Hine; ha fbacks. Corwin, Kiefer and Gilmore; quarterback Sullivan; centre, Post; guards, Chadwick and Macfarland; tackes, Allen and McGee; ends, Slocovitch, Conner and Hubbell.

A new "stunt" in the kleking line was practised to day. Cadwa ader passed the ball back between his legs for several feet to Desaulies, the quarterback, who thereupon set it with frightful speed in position for a goa; from the field. Chamberlain, who had failen b.k, started running the moment the ball was snapped, met it where Desaulies was kneeling, and kicked the goal as a place kick. With good holding the trick should work well, although it has to be done too quickly to admit of much accuracy.

A change must be made in Yale's eleven at the last moment, Charles Dudley, left halfback, received news to-night that his mother died at Washington this afternoon. He was summoned home, and will be gone for several days. It is thought, however, that he will return in time to line up against Princeton next week Saturday. He was depended on to do Yale's most effective plunging in the game with Harvard, and the team will be weakened by his absence.

All Yale expects Harvard.

All Yale expects Harvard to score, but it is firm-ly believed in New-Haven that the team does not

CHICAGO'S GAME AT ORANGE.

One of the most important games of football in this vicinity this season will be played on the Orange Oval on Saturday afternoon, beginning at 3:39 o'clock when the Orange Athletic Club will line up against the Chicago Athletic Association. The Chicago men are without doubt one of the strong-est aggregations that chase the pigskin, and are making careful preparations for their game with Orange.

GOOD PRACTICE BY PENNSYLVANIA. Philadelphia, Nov. 11.-The University of Pennsylvania football players to-day were put through their regulation practice on wet grounds, in a steady downpour of rain. Thirty minutes were spent in signal practice, in which the entire team was kept steadily at work. The men worked smoothly and quickly. From then until dark the smoothly and quickly. From then until dark the regulars were lined up against a strong scrub team. Both teams played with a good deal of snap, and the scrub showed up strong. Zeigler was at centre for the University. He pussed the wet ball in good form and pur up a good defence. Hare and Mc-Cracken were at the guards and played in good style. Hare often breaking up the guards back of the scrub. Minds was in his old place at fullback, and, despite his bad ankles, put up a good game. He always gained five yards or more, and his punts were low and hard.

THE DEATH OF H. H. BROWN.

CIRCUMSTANCES OF IT AS NARRATED BY HIS BROTHER-IN-LAW.

The body of Henry H. Brown, the contractor, who died from heart disease on board the Fall River Line boat Puritan on Tuesday evening, while on his way to Boston, was brought to this city yesterday from Fall River by Dr. Simon J. Walsh, Mr. Brown's brother-in-law. The widow and seven children had arrived from Pennsylvania, and last evening the friends of the family gathered at the house to express their sympathy. Dr. Walsh, who is in charge of the funeral arrangements, gave to a Tribune reporter the exact details of Mr. Brown's

"Mr. Brown," he said, "had been in the habit of going to Boston about once a week, to look after the immense amount of contract work he had with the New-York, New-Haven and Hartford Railroad. He was accustomed to go by the Puritan, and was well acquainted with the officers of the boat from the captain down. When he planned the trip his daughter Mary wished to go with him. He demurred somewhat, saying that he would be engaged in business with men all the time he was there and would have little time to be with her. He consented, however, that she should accompany him, and engaged two adjoining staterooms on the Puritan for Tuesday night. On Tuesday afternoon Miss Brown received a note from a friend, saying that she was coming to visit her. Miss Brown's Boston trip was then given up, Mr. Brown started on the boat alone. He found on board several friends whom he knew, and it is believed that two of these dined with him.

PAPERS READ AT THE SOCIETY'S ANNUAL MEETING-ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The fifth annual meeting of the Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers began yesterday morning in the rooms of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, No. 12 West Thirty-first-st. In the absence of the president, Clement A. Griscom, one of the vice-presidents, Charles H. Cramp of Philadelphia, called the meeting to order. John C. Kafer, of New-York, was made chairman.

Members of the society from all parts of the country are present, and A. F. Yarrow, the cele-brated torpedo-boat builder, came from England to attend the meeting. There are representatives from all the large shipbuilding firms in America. Resolutions thanking the British Institution of Naval Architects for its hospitality to representa tives of the society at the time of the Queen's Ju-blice and on the death of Rear-Admiral Meade, U. S. N., who was one of the vice-presidents of the society, were adopted. In the election of officers for the coming year Clement A. Griscom, of Philadelphia, was re-electclement A. Griscom, of Financia, and considers. Commodore F. M. Bunce, U. S. N., was chosen to succeed Admiral Mende in the list of vice-presidents. T. W. Hyde and E. A. Stevens were elected vice-presidents. Those who were relected vice-presidents are Charles H. Cramp, Philip Hichborn, Charles H. Lorling, William H. Webb, George W. Meiville, George W. Quintard, Irving M. Scott and Frank L. Fernald. W. M. McFarland and C. H. Peabody were added to the Council Board. Francis T. Bowles was re-elected secretary and treasurer.

The following papers were read: "Water-tight Bulkhead Doors, by William B. Cowles, of Cleveland, Ohio; "Regulations for Loading Vessels," by Lewis Nixon, of Elizabeth, N. J.; "Torpedo-Boat Design," by Assistant Naval Constructor Horatio G. Gillmor, U. S. Peabody, of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and "The Commerce of Cheveland, Ohio." ed president. Commodore F. M. Bunce, U. S. N.

The convention will continue to-day and close to-night, with a dinner at Delmonico's this evening.

CHARGED WITH ATTEMPTED EXTORTION.

THE EDITOR OF "THE RETAIL GROCERS' ADVO-CATE" AND HIS ADVERTISING AGENT ACCUSED.

The old story of a person seeking to extort money being trapped by the police and arrested with marked bills in his possession was told in the Centre Street Court before Magistrate Brann yeaterday afternoon. In this case Charles Koch, of No. 118 West One-hundred-and-first-st., who is the Editor of "The Retail Grocers' Advocate," and Alfred Marks, of No. 305 West One-hundred-and-twenty-fifth-st., the advertising agent of the paper, figured as the prisoners, and Sperry & Hutchinson, dealers in notions at No. 320 Broadway, as the complainants. Mr. Sperry said he would consider the proposition, which he did by placing it in the hands of counsel. When the police learned about the matter, the usual trap was laid. THE PALMETTO CHAMPION OUTPLAYED IN THE WESTCHESTER GOLF TOUR-

FENN DEFEATED BY GILLESPIE.

NEY-THE SEMI-FINALS TO-DAY. The links of the Westchester Country Club presented a cheerless aspect yesterday, when the match-play rourds in the club's open tournament were begun. During the morning the air was raw and penetrating, and, to add to the discomfort of the players, a high wind blew across the course from the Sound. The rain, which set in soon after noon, made things still more uncomfortable, but, in spite of all this, both the first and second rounds for the Country Club Cup and the Consolation Cup were decided. In the morning Fenn had as his opponent S. Gil-lesple, who won the golf championship of Canada in 1896, and who appeared for the first time on metropolitan links in Wednesday's preliminary round. To the surprise of every one, Fenn was beaten. After his capital work on the previous day, when he won the gold medal offered for the lowest score, his defeat caused a small-sized sensation among the crowd. Fenn was 3 up at the end of the first half, but, in spite of this lead, Gillesple closed up the gap and won on the last hole by 1 up. On the second round Gillesple made a 28, which equalled Wright's record of the previous day. His game throughout was characterized by steady, energetic and ferreful golf. The cards show the interesting features of the match. They were as follows:

2 6 5 5 4 3 6 5 4 40 7 5 4 4 3 4 6 6 44 84 ......5 6 6 5 4 4 5 5 5—45 3 5 5 4 3 4 3 5 6—38—83

After clever work of this kind it was disappointing that Gillespie allowed Wright, the Philadelphia player, to beat him when the two met in the afternoon. From being the most prominent man on the course at noon, he sank into insignificance when Wright came in a winner by 4 up and 3 to go. The latter was invincible in his putting, and held things safe from the start.

Travis, of the Oakland Golf Club, proved another surprise, for, after defeating Larocque in the morning, he followed up his success by winning from A. M. Robbins, one of the strongest of the St. Andrews players. This victory makes Travis the most prominent candidate for the cup. Sands and Baker had a close finish in their second-round, match, the score standing even at the end of the eighteen holes. As Baker would not be able to appear to-day, he purposely refused to play the deciding hole, and allowed Sands to win by default. Rushmore, of Tuxedo, proved too strong for Bowels, who was beaten after a close match by I up. This leaves Travis to play Wright, and Rushmore to meet Sands in to-day's semi-dnals.

The consolution affair was also brought down to the semi-dnal round before the close of the day, and the survivors were D. W. Taylor, of Seabright: J. H. Brooks, of Scranton: N. C. Reynal, of Knollwood, and N. H. Lord, of Ardsey.

It was decided late last evening by the Greens Committee to add an open handicap to to-day's contexts, entries for which are to be received up to the time of starting. The summary follows: pear to-day, he purposely refused to play the de-contexts, entries for which are to be received up to the time of starting. The summary follows:

WOMEN GOLFERS AT ARDSLEY.

There was an interesting women's team match at Ardsley yesterday, in which six clubs were repre-sented by teams of five players each. Those who took part included some of the most prominent women golfers of the country. Miss Beatrix Hoyt, the present champion, played on the Miss Shinnecock team, and made a new women's record Shinnecock team, and made a new women's record of 97 for the inside 18-hole course. Mrs. Arthur B. Turnure, the runner-up in the women's champion-snip of 1896, was also a member of the Shinnecock delegation. The tournament was at 18 holes, medal play, for a cup presented by A. De Witt Cochrane. It was won by the Morris County team, with a total score of 585 points. The teams which took part, together with their scores, are shown by the following summary:

MEMBERS OF THE MEADOW PROOK HUNT CLUB NOT DETERRED BY BAD WEATHER.

In spite of the rain, a cross-country run was held by the members of the Meadow Brook Hunt Club yesterday on the south shore of Long Island. The run was over a ten-mile course. Throughout entire run rain was falling in torrents, bu neither this nor the slippery condition of the turf interfered with the huntsmen. The meet took place at 3:30 o'clock at Meadow Brook Park, the untry seat of Ralph N. Ellis, where, previous to the run, a luncheon was served. The hounds were thrown in on the Lowden property, at East Meadow. From there they ran across the estate of John S. NEW MEN FOR NEW-YORK'S TEAM. Philadelphia, Nov. 11 .- There was no meeting of National Baseball League to-day, transfer of Grady and Hartman, of St. Louis, to New-York, and Holmes and Donnelly from New-York to St. Louis was the only deal that went through. It is quite probable that Hallman, second basemar, of St. Louis, will go to Brooklyn, and there is a likelihood of Doyle, first baseman of Baltimore, wearing a Brooklyn uniform next season. It is hinted that Philadelphia also has a line out for Doyle.

TRYING TO MAKE SINTY-FIVE CONSECUTIVE CEN-TURY RUNS-THE PROPOSED BRIDGE PATH -COAL GAS IN TIRES-FOOTPATH

RIDING IN NEW-JERSEY.

The report of the Racing Board of the League of American Wheelmen this week contains the an-nouncement of the removal of suspension placed on M. G. Miller, of Montclair, N. J., and his trans-fer from the amateur to the professional ranks. The mile record of 1:35 2-5, made by Eddle McDuffle at Willow Grove. Philadelphia, on October 28, is allowed. That McDuffle could make the mile in this time seemed almost impossible to many persons, particularly as a strong wind was blowing during the run. Few spectators were present, but a full investigation has been made, and McDuffle now holds the American mile record.

William H. Anderson, of the Century Wheelmen, has completed twenty-six consecutive century run of the sixty-five he is attempting, in order to exceed the record of sixty consecutive centuries made by Knowles some time ago. If he succeeds in his effort it will be one of the severest tests of en-durance that any rider has ever attempted. Mr. Anderson rides at night.

The monthly meeting of the Associated Cycling Clubs will be held next Monday at the Brooklyn Bicycle Club, No. S. Hanson Place. The Public Action Committee will present a report on the pro-posed cycle path on the Brooklyn Bridge.

It is said that some French riders have tried the experiment of filling their tires with coal gas in-stead of air, and that the change effects an extraordinary increase in buoyancy and makes an ad-ditional five miles an hour easy with no extra ex-ertion. It is probable that many riders and racers here may test this novelty.

Certifrari proceedings against the Mayor and Common Council of Morristown, N. J., are to be brought on behalf of David F. Parkman by Herbert Knight, the counsel of the New-Jersey Division of the League of American Wheelmen. Parkman was arrested on a charge of violating the town bicycle ordinance by riding on a sidewalk. He asserts that he was riding on a foctpath, which is not maintained by the town as a sidewalk, and did not, therefore, violate the ordinance. The Supreme Court will be asked to review the ordinance and define the rights of bicyclists under it.

The Firemen's Cycle Club has presented to the Century Wheelmen the solid silver cup won b them for the largest number of survivors on their first century run.

A meeting of the Board of Consuls of the League of American Wheelmen for New-York City was held at the Oriental Hotel, Fifty-eighth-st. and Eighth-ave. on Wednesday evening. Dr. L. C. Le Roy, chairman of the Committee on Streets and Highways, read a report, in which he detailed the Highways, read a report, in which he detailed the results of a tour of inspection made by the committee last Sunday for the purpose of locating points in the streets, and especially at crossings, at which accidents are likely to occur on account of the need of repairs. A number of these spots were noted. It was announced that maps, on which the asphalted streets in the city will be plainly marked, are being prepared, and will be issued in a short time.

Toronto, Nov. 11 .- At a meeting of the Executive Board of the Canadian Wheelmen's Association last night, it was decided to ask the co-operation of the League of American Wheelmen in securing the world's amateur meet for Canada in 1899. ANOTHER VICTORY FOR SLOANE.

THE AMERICAN JOCKEY CAPTURES THE LIV-ERPOOL STEWARDS' PLATE.

London, Nov. 11 .- At the second day's racing of the Liverpool Autumn Meeting to-day, D. Sey-mour's five-year-old bay mare Sapling, ridden by "Tod" Stoane, the American jockey, won the Liverpool Stewards' Plate.

This race is of 350 sovereigns, for three-year-olds and upward; the second horse to receive 25 sover-eigns out of the plate; entrance 5 sovereigns. Ten horses ran over the course, Canal Point in (nearly six furlongs), and the leading horses were as folodar Oswald's four-year-old b. c. Dule Tree, by Tristan—Cydenia Sir S. Scott's four-year-old blk, f. Ardvourite, by Harcaldi—Elizabeth

The betting before the start was 7 to 7 against Ardvourile and 19 to 1 against Sapling. Sapling won by a length and a half; two and a half lengths separating second and third horses. Mrs. Lily Langury's Merman, which was the favorite for the Liverpool Cup, to be run at Liverpool to-morrow, has been scratched.

Mrs. Langury has purchased the Australian crack Aurum, the winner of many races in the Antipodes during the present season. The actress is reported to have lost heavily by the deteat of her entry, Maluma, in the Great Lancashire Handleap yesterday, which was won by S. H. Burns's Easter Gift, with "Tod" Sloane up.

"Tod" Sloane, the American Jockey, has won high approval here, and the newspapers which formerly criticised him, are now full of praise for his riding. They all acknowledge that he is a great rider. "The Globe' says:

"However urly Sloane's style, it pays, and we must admit that he is a perfect artist in the saddle, and that at his weight we have little stock in this country to cope with him."

"The Sun" remarks:

"Even the most prejudiced are forced to admit he knows how to heat most of our men when his mount is good enough. There is something in his method deserving of consideration." Ardyourlie and 10 to 1 against Sapling. Sapling

GENESEE VALLEY STEEPLECHASE.

The two leading horses were neck and neck for nearly haif a mile before the finish was reached. Brophel won by throwing himself forward on his horse and foreins him under the wire not more than one foot in the lead. The race was for a purse of £6 in sold. In the match race between Harry W. Smith and William Litaver, the farmer's steeplechaser owned by Litaver was an easy winner.

DEATH OF MALVOLIO.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 11.—Malvoito, owned by Jacob Marklein and John Fay, died at Cumberland Park last night from catarrhal fever. He was one of the best two-year-olds in the West, and his owners recently refused $19,993 for him. The colt had been sick for several days.

ANTI-POOLING LAW UNCONSTITUTIONAL. St. Louis, Nov. 11 .- In the Court of Criminal Correction to-day Provisional Judge Sidener sus-tained a motion to quash in the cases of the fifteen defendants recently arrested for pool-selling and bookmaking, and they were discharged. He declared that the Breeders Law, enacted by the last Legislature, under which these arrests were made, is unconstitutional.

TO ENTER KING RENE, JR.

A. A. Bonner will again have the handsome trotting stallion King Rene, Jr., 2:17, in the New-York National Horse Show next week. It is said that the horse is looking remarkably well this year, and all horsemen who have seen him recently, as and all horsemen who have seen him recently, as well as Mr. Bonner and his trainer, Lemuel Ketcham, expect King Rene, fr., to beat Stamboul and others in the Stallion Champion Prize, as he is now just in his prime, being seven years old; and as he has a race record of 2:17 in a third heat, and was second to Grace Hastings when he trotted, from wire to wire, in 2:13½, he has speed enough. King Rene, fr., took the blue ribbon as a three-year-old, and last year he took first prize as a sixyear-old in the class for all trotting stallions standing for mares.

COUNTERCHARGES OF ASSAULT.

Peter Madden, a drug-dealer, of No. 88 Wall-st. Peter Madden, a drug-dealer, of No. S Wall-st., and Cary Parker, a lawyer, of No. 32 Nassau-st., were arraigned in Yorkville Court yesterday morning, after having been locked up Wednesday night for assault, one upon the other. Each man pressed the charge against the other, and both were the charge against the other, and both were paroled until November 17 at 3 p. m., when the examination will take place.

The two men fought at Forty-ninth-st, and Fifthave. Wednesday night. The fight was over a woman, Madden's wife, with whom Parker was walking.

COOPER UNION OPENINGS. The Cooper Union Museum for the Arts of Deco ration will be open to the public, beginning with next week, on all days except Sunday and Monday, between 10 a. m. and 5 p. m. ### AN OPEN LETTER TO MOTHERS.

WE ARE ASSERTING IN THE COURTS OUR RIGHT TO THE EXCLUSIVE USE OF THE WORD "CASTORIA," AND "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," AS OUR TRADE MARK.

I, DR. SAMUEL PITCHER, of Hyannis, Massachusetts, was the originator of "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," the same that has borne and does now bear the fac-simile signature of Chartt Platehous on every wrapper.

This is the original "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," which has been used in the homes of the mothers of America for over 30 years. LOOK CAREFULLY at the wrapper and see that it is the kind you have always bought and has the signature of Chat Hillithus on the WRAPPER. No one has authority from me to use my name except The Centaur Company, of which Chas. H. Fletcher is President.

NEWS OF THE ARMY AND NAVY.

March 8, 1897.

Washington, November II.
INSTRUCTIONS TO THE NAVAL MILITIA. The purpose of the Navy Department to watch more carefully than heretofore over the welfare of the Navai Militia is indicated in the following general circular to those organizations issued by Sec-

Officers detailed to act as inspectors and instruc-tors of the Naval Militia will be governed by the tors of the Naval Militia will be governed by the following instructions:

First—All official correspondence between the Navy Department and the Naval Militis of and State is carried on through the Adjutant-General of that State.

Second—The Adjutant-General of each State having a Naval Militia organization will be informed by the Department that an officer of the Navy has been detailed for duty in connection with certain divisions. The preliminary arrangements for any inspection or instruction will be made by the officer thus detailed and the Adjutant-General of the State.

inspection or instruction will be made by the officer thus detailed and the Adjutant-General of the State.

Third—Officers will in no case permit this special duty to interfere with their regular duties, and will themselves be the judges of when it will be most convenient to give their services.

Fourth—Whenever this duty involves travel, the number of inspections shall not exceed one a month, and a request to perform this travel will be forwarded to the Department.

Fifth—The inspection of the Naval Militia by the State authorities is generally conducted on the same plan as that for the land militia. Officers will therefore sive particular attention to duties and exercises that are essentially naval in their character, rather than to infantry, artillery and other drills common to both branches of the National Guard.

Sixth—The duties that the Naval Militia will probabily be called upon to perform in time of warhave been clearly defined in the pamphlet entitled "Letters from the President of the War College upon the Subject of the Naval Militia," a copy of which will be furnished to each inspecting officer.

Seventh—Particular attention will be given to the inspection of all Government property in the possession of the Naval Militia, especially to the care and preservation of such property. Uniforms are furnished by the States, but they must conform to the naval pattern.

Eleth—The inspection and instruction herein provided for shall continue until June 36, 1898, upon furnished by the State, the naval pattern.

Eighth—The inspection and instruction herein provided for shall continue until June 30, 1898, upon which date a brief summary of the duty performed, with such recommendations as may suggest themselves, will be forwarded to the Department.

REVISED ARMY BRANDING REGULATIONS. Under general orders issued to the Army to-day by Major-General Miles, Section 1.02 of the regulaby Major-General anical states and public ani-tions is amended so that hereafter all public ani-mals will be branded "U. S." in letters two inches long on the left foreshoulder, and the regiment and troop or battery will be branded in three-quarterinch letters and figures on the hoof of one fore-foot, the latter brand being burned in one-sixteenth inch deep, and the letter of the troop or battery preceding the number of the regiment. This is virtually a return to the method formerly in vogue. All recent branding was confined to the hoof, where it was obliterated with comparative ease, and animais belonging to the United States were stolen. With the initials "U.S." permanently on the animal, it is believed the incentive will be removed to destroying the minor branding on the hoof.

DIRECTORY OF AMERICAN REPUBLICS. A VALUABLE WORK PRESENTED TO THE

PRESIDENT BY SECRETARY SHERMAN. Washington, Nov. 11.—Secretary Sherman, Min-ister Romero, of Mexico, and Minister Merou, of Argentina, members of the Executive Committee of the Bureau of American Republics, were at the White House to-day, and presented the first volume of the Commercial Directory of American Republics to President McKinley. There was con-siderable formality about the matter, the presentation being made in the Blue Parior. Secretary siderable formally about the Blue Parior. Secretary tion being made in the Blue Parior. Secretary Sherman presented the volume, saying:

Mr. President: Representing the Executive Committee of the Bureau of American Republics. I hand you the first volume of the Commercial Directory of the American Republics, a work of such vest practical importance to the commerce of our country as to be well worthy that we should come in a body to present it to you. Upon looking through its pages you will quickly discern its farreaching value as a factor in disseminating generating information respecting the natural resources, the peculiar commercial activities, the varying occupations of their industries, and the latent capabilities of the countries of the Western Hemisphere. Such a work, it is believed, has never before been collated and published. With the fullest confidence that this handsome volume, with its wealth of data so often sought for unavailingly by business men, will meet with your hearty approval, I have the honor of tendering this specially bound copy for your examination, with Director Smith's letter of transmittal.

President McKinley made a formal response, expressing his interest in the work of the Bureau and the hope that the publication would lead to closer commercial relations between the republics
